Tissue World Barcelona: Voith presents the NipcoFlex T shoe press and state-of-the-art products

2015-03-05

Voith will have its own stand again this year at Tissue World Barcelona, Spain, to be held from March 17 to 19, 2015. Trade fair visitors will find Voith at stand C 150.

Voith will introduce the current NipcoFlex T shoe press and illustrate examples of the system already installed worldwide, including the new PM 7 production line Fripa Papierfabrik Albert Friedrich KG in Miltenberg, Germany. The presentation will furthermore include ATMOS, the Voith technology for the manufacture of premium tissue, as well as more than 20 other state-of-the-art products for tissue production.

Marcus Schwier, Voith Vice President Sales Tissue EMEA, will give a presentation on Wednesday, March 18, 2015, on the topic: 'Join the Future – the Most Energy Saving Tissue Production Line in the World.' Mr. Schwier will present the latest operating results from Miltenberg.

Laslo Monte, Voith Director Sales FRS Tissue & Replacement Rolls EMEA, will give a presentation on Thursday, March 19, 2015 focusing on 'State-of-the-Art Conditions for Dewatering at the Suction Pressure Roll.' Mr. Monte will report on the significant energy savings and performance increases that can be achieved for paper machines with the HydroSeal sealing strip system, the SolarSoft polyurethane roll cover and the Evolution press felt.
