2015-07-08

- first award for a service provider
- 11th AutoEvent of the Polish Chamber of the Automotive Industry (PIM)

Przemysław Pendrowski, Managing Director of Voith Industrial Services Sp.z.o.o. in Gliwice (Poland), was named “Manager of the Year 2015” by the Polish Chamber of the Automotive Industry PIM (Polska Izba Motoryzacji) in June this year. He received the title for excellent diversified and high-quality service management.

For the eleventh consecutive year, PIM awarded the titles “Manager of the Year” and “Investment of the year” during the AutoEvent. During the conference Przemysław Pendrowski took part in two discussion panels: “Raising capacity and provide stability in production” and “Car manufacturers requirements in relation to suppliers (quality, logistics, innovation)”.

The title “Investment of the Year 2015” was awarded to Polaris Poland Sp.z.o.o that established a plant for the production of quad bikes in Opole/Poland. About 300 guests were invited to the awards ceremony.

Przemysław Pendrowski: “I am very pleased to receive this great award. I am especially happy about the fact that this year a representative of a service company is awarded for the first time. Up to now, only large automotive manufacturers or their main suppliers were awarded.” The award also means prestige and recognition of the significant role in the development of the automotive industry in Poland for the manager. In previous years, managers of Kirchhoff (Janusz Soboń), Sitech (Gerold Ennen), Volkswagen Poznań (Jens Ocksen), Solaris Bus & Coach (Solange&Krzysztof Olszewscy), Plastic Omnium (Aleksander Czajka) and General Motors (Andrzej Korpak) were awarded.

The sites of Voith Industrial Services in Poland offer a broad service portfolio – from tool management and production maintenance to toolmaking and production equipment manufacture. The team of Voith Industrial Services is very pleased to receive this award.
